

I urge defeat of a petition from the banking institutions to overturn the currently in place "Do Not Call List." The nightmare of the nightly phone calls disrupting the homelife of private citizens must not be reinstated! Anyone who wishes to, may call any institution he so desires, and on his own terms NOW. Please keep it this way. So many of our freedoms are being slowly taken away. Please respect our homelife and protect us from this invasion. Thank you.